

Megan Zimpelman

mezimpelman@email.wm.edu

2116 Statute Lane, Vienna, VA, 22181

703-424-4709

EDUCATION

College of William & Mary, School of Education, Graduate Program, Williamsburg, VA
Masters of Arts in Education, Secondary Education (Social Studies)
Expected graduation date: May 2014

College of William & Mary, Williamsburg, VA
Bachelor of Arts (History and Government)
Graduated cum laude May 2013, GPA 3.52/4.00
Study Abroad: Pablo de Olavide University, Seville, Spain (January – May 2012)

James Madison High School, Vienna, VA
Graduated June 2009

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Lois S. Hornsby Middle School, Williamsburg, VA, Student Intern, September 2013 – present
Observed 80 hours in a 7th grade US History II classroom for graduate teaching practicum.
Will begin student teaching professional internship starting in February 2014 for the spring semester.

Fairfax County Public Schools, Fairfax County, VA, Substitute Teacher, May 2013 – present
Substitute-taught in FCPS elementary and middle schools over college semester breaks.

Center for Gifted Education, Summer Enrichment Program, Williamsburg, VA, Teaching Assistant, July 2013
Assistant-taught elementary school students in an academic enrichment camp at The College of William & Mary.

el Colegio Madre Maria de la Iglesia, Seville, Spain, English Teacher, January – May 2012
Taught 2nd and 3rd grade students English at a nearby elementary school during semester abroad.

WORK EXPERIENCE

College of William & Mary – Office of Institutional Analysis and Effectiveness, Williamsburg, VA, Digital Measures System Team Member, June 2013 – present
Member of a team that is currently in the process of creating a college-wide database system that reports faculty teaching and research accomplishments and professional activities.

DC School Reform Now, Washington, DC, Summer Intern, June – August 2012
Internship with District of Columbia education reform organization over the summer; worked with DC Public Schools parents and staff to advocate for high quality education. Maintained social presence of the organization, analyzed data and surveys, developed literature for upcoming initiatives.

COLLEGE ACTIVITIES

College Partnership for Kids, Student Tutor, 2012-2013
Tutored 5th grade students once a week at a local public elementary school in Williamsburg, VA

Habitat for Humanity International, Team Member, 2010-2013
Fundraised for house construction and performed service work in El Salvador during 2011 Spring Break.

Project Academy for Life and Learning (ALL), Executive Board Member, 2009-2011
Met with local school officials in Williamsburg concerning alternative education academy.
Tutored 7th and 8th school students once a week at an alternative education academy..

AWARDS AND HONORS

Phi Sigma Pi National Honor Fraternity, 2010-2013
Vienna Women's Club Scholarship Award, 2009
Saint John Neumann Scholarship, 2009
Apple Federal Credit Union Scholar, 2009